

User Workflow Overview
Upon the selection of the Observations Tab, the user can view all observations and arrange the order by their preference. If an observation is selected from the accordion section, the observation can reviewed and/or edited. When the user selects the New Entry button, a new tray will appear which allows the user to select Immunization, which will open an entry form for completion pertaining to the patient's immunization.